Objective and strategy

- MMG Fixed Income Fund is a diversified, fixed-income and hybrid capital, US-dollar-denominated fund that invests in securities whose country of risk is Panama or other Latin American countries.
- The fund's objective is to obtain a superior net return to traditional short-term banking products and to pay a monthly dividend.
- Our investment process focuses on the fund's total return, while maintaining a low-volatility profile. We established investment guidelines that allow us to maintain a diversified portfolio and minimize credit and interest rate risk.
- Given Panama's stable and international capital markets and our expertise in the local economy, we placed the country at the core of our investment process. Although we favor a bottom-up approach, we monitor macroeconomic conditions of all the countries/sectors we operate in and position the portfolio accordingly.

Disclaimer

Important risks:

The fund is actively managed and its characteristics can vary. The fixed income securities in which the fund invests can vary in price depending on the market conditions. Among the risks of fixed income investments there exists the risk of an increase in interest rates and credit risk. Normally, when interest rates increase, the price in fixed income securities proportionally decreases. On the other hand, credit risk refers to the possibility that the bond Issuer is not able to pay the interest or initial investment creating a financial loss to the fund and consequently to the investor. Although the fund only invests in fixed income securities that are issued in US dollars, international investments imply specific risks, including but not limited to monetary fluctuations, lack of liquidity, and volatility of the investment. These types of risks are present on emerging markets investments. High Yield Bonds are more prone to fluctuations in price and the risk of the issuer not being able to repay the debt. The interested investors should consult the informative prospectus that is available in the offices of MMG Bank Corporation. This factsheet does not represent an investment recommendation in the fund.
